P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, many former servicemen who served the Nation well in the Armed Forces during times of conflict and trouble are now veterans undergoing treatment in Veterans Administration hospitals; and,

WHEREAS, thousands of dedicated men and women, both as members of service organizations or as unaffiliated individuals have devoted unselfishly of their time and efforts by volunteering to assist the busy professional hospital staffs; and,

WHEREAS, for the past 25 years they have cheered, comforted and aided in all possible ways these veteran-patients, many of whom have no kin living or are located far from friends and relatives; and,

WHEREAS, these devoted volunteers deserve the plaudits and recognition of all citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of March 28, 1971, as in order to honor their efforts and to alert other warm-hearted Americans to the existence of this field of service, in which their added efforts will be most welcome.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 3rd day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen hundred and Seventy-one.

Richard F. Kneip
